Parade Will Move '53 STATE FAIR At Noon Saturday OPENS TONIGHT

Bands, Marching Units, Floats
And the New Queen Will be Seen

By KEN McDEVITT

The drums will bang, the cymbals clang and the State Fair parade will be under way Saturday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. as the first units march down Sloat boulevard to the new campus.

Units of the San Francisco State AFROTC will follow the Motorcycle escort down Sloat boulevard to Junipero Serra, then to Holloway avenue and end at the new campus. The reviewing stand will be located in front of the Administration building.

A stellar line-up of off-campus groups will participate in the parade. The Department of Pacific Marine Corps band heads the list. Other bands include: SFSC AFROTC band, Sixth Army pipe band, and the Navy band Electronics school, Cal Marching band, and the Red Devil Drum and Bugle Corps.

MARCHING UNITS

Marching units will include Parks Air Force Drill Team, 19th WAF Squadron Drill team, University of Cal Drill team, Spanishtown Dons Drill team, Marine Corps Drill team, and San Lorenzo Majorettes.

Campus floats from Bib 'n' Tucker, Delta Phi Gamma, Kappa Theta, Alpha Chi Alpha, Frosh class, Associated Students, Alpha Omega, Sigma Delta Gamma, Kappa Omega will add color to the festivities. The Associated Student float will be adorned by the lovely State Fair Queen and her court.

PARADE LEADERS

Official cars will lead the parade containing President and Mrs. Leonard, the Administrative Deans, Administrative Staff, Frederic Burk P.T.A. and Associated Student officers.

Circus Atmosphere Planned for Dance Saturday Night After Water Follies

"Carnival Fantasy," a vivid mixture of music, dancing, and abstract decorative design, will provide the fitting climax to State Fair, '53.

The dance begins at 10 p.m. Saturday at the new campus, immediately following the Water Follies. Admission, with Scrip books, is free. Tickets may be purchased at the door; $1.50 per couple, 85 cents, stag.

A bizarre blend of unusual lighting effects and dangling mobiles will hover over Charlie Stearn and his 12-man orchestra, who will perform from a revolving bandstand placed in the center of the dance floor.

The circus tent motif will be further accentuated by a menagerie of ferocious paper mache animals, glaring silently at dancers from their modernistic cages placed along the walls of the Women's gym.

Refreshments—pink lemonade and cake—will be served on the patio. At 10:30 p.m. a folk-dancing exhibition will be presented.

FAIR RALLIES AT BOTH CAMPI TODAY

State Fair rallies will be held at the old and new camps at 1 and 1:40 p.m. respectively. The old campus rally will be held in the rec center and the new campus rally in front of the gym. Both events will feature the singing of the "Sophtones." Narrator-M.C. will be Dean Berg. The rally will conclude with a rousing "Bunny Hop."

Bonfire, Queen Coronation At New Campus Lower Field Begin Three-Day Festivities

Months of meticulous planning will burst into flaming reality at 8 tonight as the State Fair bonfire rally starts on the lower field, new campus. The three day Fair is open to students and the public and will continue through Saturday.

The bonfire, complete with fireworks and pretty girls, will kick-off the top social event of the Spring semester. The State Fair Queen and her court will be crowned during the rally. A car caravan at 7 p.m. from the old campus to the site of the rally will precede the event.

A Carnival Fantasy...

The fair will provide a variety of entertainment and cultural exhibits for students and public alike. As the transition to the new campus will be completed next fall, the fair will provide the first opportunity for our new Stonestown neighbors to visit the campus.

First variety show of the fair, Campus Galaxy, will follow the rally at 9 p.m. in the main gym. The show includes talent from State, University of California and City College.

Friday, classes will be dismissed and a car caravan to the fair site at 11:15 will kick the carnival into high gear. Booths and division exhibits will open at noon. The music show comprising the Symphonic band, A Cappella Choir, Men and Women's Glee clubs and Symphony orchestra will hold sway in the main gym at 1 p.m.

Friday shows will include: Intramural track meet at Cox stadium, 3:15; International Flavor, 4 p.m.; Aerial Revue, 7 p.m.; Donkey basketball, 8 p.m., and Water Follies in the main gym swimming pool, 9:15 p.m.

Big event of the Saturday program is the State Fair parade from Sloat boulevard down Junipero Serra to Holloway and then to the new campus reviewing stand at the administration building.

Booths will open Saturday at 1 p.m. and department exhibits at 1:30. Global Panorama, a foreign student show will be presented at 2 p.m. in the main gym. A high school talent show will take the boards at 8 p.m. followed by another performance of the Water Follies.

Capping the three day spectacle is the State Fair Dance, Carnival Fantasy in the Women's gym from 10 to 1 a.m. A folk dancing exhibit will be offered at 10:30. Admission is free to scrip book holders, 85 cents stag and $1.50 a couple.

Scrip books are available through all on-campus organizations and offer free admission to all shows and events of the fair. Price, $2.75.

This Year's Fair is School's Fourth

There are two primary ideas behind the beginning of the San Francisco State Fair four years ago.

The first was that the civic-minded citizens of San Francisco should learn more about their expanding State college. Every semester was seeing additions and improvements in what was once just another teacher's college.

The other idea behind the founding of the Fair was that many students had neither the time nor the opportunity to participate in the extra-curricular activities of the student body.

State Fair was to provide enough variety of a program to appeal to all segments of the student body. The form follows true this year, with division exhibits, donkey basketball, an "International Flavor" stage show with overseas students participating, carnival booths, art films, and many other diversified activities.

'Campus Galaxy' Follows Bonfire

First of the State Fair shows will be presented following the bonfire rally Thursday evening in the main gym, new campus.

Talent of three colleges will combine to produce a 14 act variety show. The show will include the renowned faculty quartet Gloria and Rabelle Reyes in their native Hula dance plus acts from City college and University of California.

MERMAIDS JOIN TALENTS FOR WATER SHOW TOMORROW NIGHT

Co-eds from Cal, Stanford Add to Cast of 50 at New Campus Pool

Fifty gorgeous mermaids, ranging in age from six to 23, including co-eds from Cal and Stanford, will perform in an eye-straining aquatic display for the State Fair, Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9, at 9 p.m. New Women's gym.

This collection of feminine talent are members of the Oakland Recreational Department, the Oakland Athens Water Follies Group and a number of junior high and high school students.

The opening act features the girls swimming around a float, upon which the State Fair Queen and her court are enthroned, with a melodious background of music furnished by the State College Glee Club.

This will be followed by other presentations with such enticing titles as "Sorcerer's Apprentice," "Dual Diving," "Duet" by outstanding grammar school swimmers, "Coquettes," "Begin the Beguine," "Comedy Diving," and "Maypole," which will conclude the performance.

The precision swimming performed by these groups seems easy, but requires years of experience and hours of practice before the final polished product is ready for a performance. Unfortunately, the shows are usually staged before limited audiences, because of seating facilities at most swimming arenas.

For those fortunate enough to have viewed one of these extravaganzas the experience has been nearly always a delight.

If for no other reason, it would be worth while at least for the males to see the show because of the large aggregation of beautiful women in bathing suits. For those others, more artistically inclined, the numbers are an impressive display of precision, grace and rhythm.

A picture captures the essence of a thousand words, or so they say. May we present Miss Etra Ravaglini, or "Miss Essence" of the Water Follies, an exhibition of synchronized swimming to be presented at 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights in the new campus swimming pool.

SETS NEW RECORD

Stater Has Strange Distinction; Boss Loses College Diction

By BOB HORN

Athletic and academic records have been set by students at San Francisco State, but a new and distinctive record has been recorded in the books of prosperity by one of our students, whom we shall refer to as K. P.

K.P. has the unequalled distinction of holding a job for less time than ever before recorded in the pages of history—exactly two and one-half minutes.

This feat began when he applied for a job loading trucks in the evenings. He was hired and told to start loading trucks, no minor task for K.P., since the heaviest thing he has ever lifted was the evening newspaper.

The first package which he approached, unmistakably bore huge signs, such as "FRAGILE," and "HANDLE WITH CARE." K.P. struggled, grunted, and became very red in the face, until at last, the package was lifted from the ground.

It wouldn't be fair to call K.P. clumsy, but as soon as he had the box waist high, it fell from his hands, and from the loading platform, hitting the ground with a crash which sounded like a hand grenade thrown into a greenhouse.

With a rather sheepish look on his face, K.P. looked up into his boss' countenance and said, "I'm sorry sir, it won't happen again."

His boss answered him with, "You're ——— right it won't, you're fired."

K.P. had, after all, worked for two and one-half minutes, so he indignantly asked his ex-boss for his pay. He gave him a nickel (minus taxes).

Does anybody know where an experienced, but unemployed, truck loader can find a job?

Full Music Dept. In Show Tomorrow

By LARRY ROGERS

True to form, the music department of San Francisco State college will be proceeding full-throttle tomorrow afternoon specifically for the benefit of the merry-makers attending the annual State Fair.

Five outstanding groups of the music department, the A Cappella Choir, Men's Glee Club, Symphonic Band, Women's Choir, and the Symphonic Orchestra will be at the New Campus main gym at 1 p.m. to add their distinctive flavor to the affair.

CHOIR SINGS

The A Cappella Choir, directed by Dr. Roy Freeburg, will offer a semi-popular program which will include "The Musical Clock," "Jig for Voices," and the "Coronation Scene" from the Opera "Boris Godunov."

Two lively numbers, "Belle of the Ball" and "Jamaican Rhumba," are representative of the selections to be played by the Symphonic Band, under the baton of Mr. Edwin Kruth.

Mr. Harold Hollingsworth, director of the Men's Glee Club, will lead those 50 voices in "Begin the Beguine," "The House I Live in," and several other semi-classical numbers.

ORCHESTRA PLAYS

The Symphonic Orchestra, also in a lighter mood, will follow Dr. Wendell Otey's baton in "Promenade," "American Salute," possibly concluding with the "Hungarian March."

On the distaff side of the program, the Women's Choir will raise their voices in tribute to American Folk Songs. Under the direction of Dr. John Carl Tegnell, the choir will sing "May Day Carol," "Old Joe Clark," "Drill, Ye Terriers, Drill," and "Come, All Ye Fair and Tender Ladies," the last featuring a solo by soprano Frances Brown.

Each group will offer a 15-minute program. There will be no admission charge to scrip book holders.

Students, Faculty Meet In Night Jackass Fray

By KEN McDEVITT

Team Captains Dr. Donald M. Castleberry and Student Prexy Cecil S. Riley will select their respective jackasses and lead their teams to the fray at 7:30 p.m. in the new campus main gymnasium tomorrow night as students and faculty meet in the donkey basketball game.

Representing the faculty in the unique donkey-mounted game will be Dr. Castleberry, Dean Alan Johnson, Dr. Adan Treganza, Mr. Ray Doyle and Mr. Joe Verducci.

A probable student line-up released by Cec Riley includes: Evie Benson, Jack Hall, Lynn Ludlow, and Ron Jones; Jack Anderson, Bert Phillips, Len Flynn, Hal Grant, Dan Caldwell, George Poquette, and Dick Shoemaker.

Rules for donkey basketball are approximately the same as for regular basketball with the following exceptions:

1. Players may get off their donkeys to pick up the ball but cannot let go their donkeys while getting the ball.
2. They must get on donkey before throwing the ball.

3. When a man is trying to get on his donkey, players must not interfere until he is mounted.

4. Under penalty, players must not interfere with the man holding the ball unless mounted.

5. To touch a basket or backboard while standing on a donkey is considered a foul.

6. There are no out-of-bounds; if the ball goes over the foul line, any player may retrieve it.

7. Any mounted player can throw for a basket.

8. Teams change donkeys after each quarter.

The donkeys will be equipped with special rubber hooves for the occasion. Admission is free to scrip book holders.

AZS Favored In Intramural Track Meet

Highlighting State Fair Day activities, May 8 will be the finals in the annual intramural-interclass track and field meet. Prospective trackmen from both camps will converge on the Cox stadium oval at 2 p.m. to vie for individual, club, and class honors.

Twelve events will be on the card, and ribbons will be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners in each event except the relays. In the relays each man on the winning team and the second place team will receive ribbon awards. The 12 events are: the high jump, broad jump, discus, shot put, pole vault, football throw, 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 440, 880, four-man medley relay (440, 220, 110, 110), and eight-man 440-yard relay (each man runs 55 yards).

Only men who have not earned junior varsity or varsity track letters at any college or who are not presently members of current varsity or junior varsity track teams are eligible for competition.

The meet shall be scored separately as both an intramural and interclass meet, and an intramural team champion and a class team champion will be recognized.

Last year the seniors grabbed the class honors for the first time since 1935, while Alpha Zeta Sigma snatched the organizational laurels for the third straight year.

Regulations governing the meet are as follows:

(1) No more than three men from each team are allowed to enter any one event.

(2) Entrants for all sprint running events must submit official entry forms so that heats may be established ahead of time.

Lovely Jeanne Kessey suggests appropriate thinclad attire for tomorrow's annual intramural track, to be held in Cox stadium at 2 p.m.

Phillips Issues Statement on Fair

State Fair is an educational and cultural exhibition of, by, and for San Francisco State. We, of the Fair committee hope that you will enjoy this 4th annual State Fair, and that it will offer you entertainment and educational inspiration.

Further, that it will help cement relations with our new Stonestown neighbors. Our aim is to please people. We hope we have succeeded.

My personal thanks to the many people who have contributed their time and talents to bringing this fair into reality. Without their help, this project would not have moved from the planning stage.—Bert Phillips.
